Individual training

Individual training is only available for applicants with at least 10 years of scientific or academic record. Students of the individual training programme have a legal relationship with the university and the length of studies spans from 1 to 2 years. Individual students can attend the lectures of the formal training programme, but they are not required to take an examination in every subject. It is determined separately in every case how many credit points are awarded to them, based on previous activities.